Embrace paradox in dealing with challenges.

Build reflective practices to help sustain your heart and hope.

Saturday, 9 February 2019

9.00am – 4.30pm

Te Puna, near Tauranga

What if courage comes from a deep trust in ourselves, a trust rooted in profound self-knowledge?

Courage requires trust – in ourselves and each other, and trust in the overall balance of life. At the heart of trust is our own self-awareness and emotional intelligence. Once we begin to listen to and trust the truest part of ourselves, our choices, actions and relationships flow from that trust, begetting more trust. Trustworthy relationships create the conditions for people and their shared purpose to flourish, and for positive change to arise. Trust is one of the keys to well-being.

This is the second in a series of five one-day retreats, each exploring a fundamental aspect of the Circle of Trust® approach. In this retreat we will delve into the Circle of Trust principles and practices that help create and sustain trustworthy space, practices you can use in your personal and work lives to help you grow and sustain trustworthy relationships and be more effective and resilient in the face of life's changes and challenges.

Using poetry, metaphor and other evocative media as a starting point for self-reflection and shared exploration, this retreat offers space for you to reflect on this powerful question in your personal, relational and work lives:

What would you do with more courage?

The significant impact of the retreat stays with me in thought, feeling and attitude as well as in decisions and actions. In short, I have "come alive" and I am enjoying what that means for me day to day.

Ian Thurlow, Christchurch, NZ

Themes were explored using silence, interactive reflection, the most wonderful poems, videos and a variety of activities. I really appreciated learning about 'open and honest questions' which I now use in my practice as a clinical psychologist.

Veerle Poels, Whakatane, NZ

A stunning day - a very authentic, safe and inclusive experience.

Aroha mai to you, Mennie, for creating the space and place. This was an opportunity to celebrate our seasons, connect with our world and our place in it, and to be deliberate about growing ourselves in new ways that enable us to see and think in new ways.

This retreat has had a wonderful, gentle and affirming way of pointing me toward what matters.

Tim Heetkamp, Tauranga

Going on retreat:

We use the word 'retreat' not to suggest escape or withdrawal, but rather as an opportunity to consciously engage at a deeper level with your life and work – time and space to pay attention to your identity and to embrace the various roles and responsibilities that fill your life. It is about engaging fully with yourself and the work you do.

This is the second in a series of 5 one-day retreats:

Program Fee: $85.00 per day (Early bird: $75.00)

Includes materials, morning and afternoon tea.

Please bring your own lunch.

Attend one day or the entire series:

Series Fee: $340.00 (Full payment by 20 November 2018)
(5 retreats for the price of 4)
